Rockin' Reagan

Nancy Reagan reclines on an stuffed rocking horse on the porch of the Reagans' "Rancho de Cielo" in California. The first lady invited Life Magazine to the Ranch, usually off-limits to the press, for the exclusive photo session.

I Party There
 This is for all those Green Bayers out there who know where or when to tune in on our hard core station! Our hardcore station is UWGB, coming direct from the campus and on thurs. from about 9:00 PM to around 12:00 PM at 91.5 on your dial. Now when you call them at 465-2444 and ask them to play hardcore dont ask them to play old D.K. Sex Pistols songs from ROCK & ROLL SWIDLE. They play song like this too often, ask to hear new fast hardcore. They also play some good shit on other days too, but you will have to find out by your self, when they do. Well call Rick or who ever is at the station and ask for some good hardcore!!!!

anger, death, violence, hatred, destruction, adventure, oral sex, savage, disgusting animalism. You might not see these guys in the same club more than once. After repeated warnings to calm down go ignored, they are shut off and thrown out; often by police and sometimes arrested as in Lowell, MA for obscenely, disorderly conduct and inciting a riot, or in Salisbury for destruction and obscene gestures. But they refuse to compromise on anything. They will come out and attack and they will say and do exactly as they want. GG believes in no rules; he's banned most everywhere. GG is a wildman who knows no boundaries. He seems to thrive on pain, verbal and physical abuse. Nothing bothers him (if it does, you wouldn't know it). On stage he doesn't stand still for a minute; from the most useless convulsions, to crawling, jumping, diving, swinging, spitting at the crowd, self-inflicting his body with wounds, breaking and knocking things over that get in his way, and an occasional fight with the audience. You can always expect the unexpected so don't get too close. I don't quite know how to describe the music—trash punk, garage junk, puke, rubbish, dung? GG doesn't seem to fit into any scene. As he would put it, "I'm a fuck up, I guess I'll always be."

HOW CAN HELL BE ANY WORSE?

Bad Religion Review

Shit what a good band. This band is every thing they stand out to be. They are pretty miled, with alot of base guitar in their music. They have a great sound, and give out a strong point about todays religions. They hate the stooped people who give there church money, just because they tell you too. They say that you can believe in god , and go to church , but when you start giving your hard earned money to the church to be lieve in god thats when Bad Religion has pity on you!!!! They dont stand for no religion, they stand for the bad side of religion, the side thats making money , and makes people think that god needs your $ to help the poor and other god like things. To me you should go to church (only if you want to) and pray and have wine, but dont give your money, then your an asshole. So get the LP "How Can Hell Be Any Worse". Its really great, and look for the new Bad Religion record, it should be coming out soon....

R.F. readers, if you want the next great ish. of R.F. you better write us and send some cash & a stamp... Thank Alot!
