BAD RELIGION

TITLE: TBA (EPITAPH)

EXPECT IT: SUMMER 2004

Bad Religion's forthcoming album was so far in its infancy when AP spoke to the band, not even guitarist Greg Hetson knew what to expect. "I've heard a couple songs from Greg [Graffin, singer]," Hetson says, "and Brett's [Gurewitz, guitarist] been writing, but I haven't heard anything from him yet." Graffin yielded more info on the as-yet-untitled follow-up to Process Of Belief. "What we find ourselves in a world of right now is religious fundamentalism, which makes for a very good template or background of which Bad Religion songs are very appropriate," Graffin says. "This time also corresponds to an active academic period in my life, and my Ph.D. dissertation had a lot to do with religion and the benefits of atheism. It's a very good time, and we're poised to make another classic, meaningful Bad Religion album." [WR]
